

SOUTH WEST WESTERN AUSTRALIA ITINERARY (Perth - Adelaide)

- Day 1 Depart Perth at 8am we head south to Bridgetown through Jarrah forests and into the tall trees at Warren NP.
- Day 2 A mornings walk before heading on to Walpole. We have a four night camp at a sheltered tourist park near Walpole.
- Day 3 A day walk along the Nuyts Wilderness track to the coast, (a great walk for orchids, heath flowers and the Southern Emu Wren).
- Day 4 A walk along the Bibbulmun track and exploring the scenery of the South Coast.
- Day 5 We walk around the knoll at Coalmine Beach and then into Walpole for lunch. Afternoon relaxing
- Day 6 We drive to the Valley of the Giants for the tree top walk then on to the pretty town of Denmark. Then Albany for a short tour and an afternoon to wander this historic city, before heading north into the Stirling Ranges. We have a four night camp in the Stirling Ranges retreat.
- Day 7-9 Walking & driving in the Stirling and Porongurup Ranges including a climb to the top of Bluff Knoll, Mt Trio & a relaxing drive through Red Gum Pass observing some of the 500 flowering species found in the area.
- Day 10 We head further east to Cape Le Grand National Park for a three night base camp. When conditions allow we travel via Fitzgerald River National Park.
- Day 11 An option of a half or full day walk on the beautiful and scenic coastal trail.
- Day 12 A mornings walk/wildflowers and the afternoon in Esperance to restock supplies or relaxing on the beach at camp.
- Day 13 We head east from Esperance to Cape Arid NP. The afternoon spent exploring the area.
- Day 14 We head for the Nullabor and towards our nights bushcamp near the Eyre Bird Observatory.
- Day 15 We continue across the Nullabor to Eucla and the Old telegraph station before camping out on the Nullabor.
- Day 16 We continue to cross the Eyre Highway viewing the spectacular coastal cliffs and whales if they are around, before camping at Steaky Bay for two nights.
- Day 17 A day tour around the Streaky Bay area taking in Murphys Haystacks, the Point Labatt seal colony and Sceale Bay.
- Day 18 We head for Adelaide via Port Augusta, Wirrabra & Laura arriving about 5pm.